

46 Students Get Sutton's Medal And Certificate Awards

In a touching ceremony marking his 11th and the last as Manhattan Boro president, Hon. Perry E. Sutton last week presented the Medal and Certificate of Excellence Awards to 46 students from various junior and senior high schools in the borough.

The students were cited "for striving for personal academic growth and, utilizing limited opportunities, have achieved excellence."

Reflecting on his school days, the Boro President who is himself from upper middle-class family, recalled how children from deprived homes, without enough to eat, and proper shelter over their heads, strove hard to achieve academic excellence. "It was to recognize children from such backgrounds that I initiated this program when I became a borough president," Mr. Sutton told happy and cheery parents and students.

Helping him with the presentations were David Dinkins, Clerk of the Council, and the members of the President's Consultants on Education, Dr. Gustavo De Velasco, Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, Judge Leonard N. Cohen, Justice Oliver C. Sutton, Hon. June J. Charistmas, Judge Benjamin

Altman, Andrew Donaldson, M.B. Lee, and Dr. Lionel Hampton.
